

STUDIES
IN HUMANITIES
AND SOCIAL SCIENCES

VOL. XVIII, NUMBER 1&2, 2011

Editor
VARSHA BHAGAT-GANGULY

INDIAN INSTITUTE OF ADVANCED STUDY
RASHTRAPATI NIVAS, SHIMLA

S

H

S

S

CONTENTS

Editorial	1
RESEARCH ARTICLES
Revisiting the Camus-Sartre Debate MANGESH KULKARNI	9
Systems and Lifeworlds: A Habermasian Overview of Major Trends in Classical Indian Philosophy AJAY VERMA	25
A Tale of Three Couples and their Poet: Rāmakathā , Love and Vālmīki in South Asian Tradition KANAD SINHA	43
A Paradigm Reconsidered: F.G. Bailey and the Study of Politics in India GITIKA DE	81
Reconstructing History and Memory: Partition Narratives in Translation BAISALI HUI	97
Gendering of Art through Religious Symbolism: Mapping Depictions of Feminine Sexuality in Hindu Temple Architecture PREETI SHARMA	111
Disciplining English Literary Studies in India: A Critique BANIBRATA MAHANTA	129
Reading Community Identities and Traditions: The History and Representation of the Shrivaishnavas of South India RANJEETA DUTTA	141

Settling the Unruly Tracts: Representation of Counter Spatial Tactics, Ideas on Environment and Justice among Santals in 18 th Century Folktales SAYANTONI DATTA	169
---	-----

BOOK REVIEWS

Contrary to Thoughtlessness: Rethinking Practical Wisdom AMAL KUMAR HARH	195
--	-----

Revolution From Above: India's Future and the Citizen Elite VARSHA BHAGAT-GANGULY	203
---	-----

Contributors	209
---------------------	-----